Gotta Love It!

The educational system can help students set their path for a fulfilling career.

Here, students identify their unique career path with a mindset for success. They'll discover what they love to do – and how to make a living doing it! Students learn how to:

- Narrow their career choices
- Clarify their personal brand and unique selling proposition
- Develop strategic goals, so they start the right career in the right organization

Target audience: The target audience is the educational system to provide students with a foundation for career choices.

Also: Conference workshops, breakouts, and association meetings, chambers of commerce

Program Length: This program can be customized to one hour, and half day versions.

BE REMARKABLE: Live Your Life with No Limits!

MEET Judy Richardson

Judy's enthusiastic style ignites the passion that lies within.

Rarely do you meet someone who exudes a passion to live life to the fullest, is committed to life-long learning, and enthusiastically inspires and empowers others. Meet Judy Richardson.

More than two decades ago, Judy longed to live a life that tapped into her full potential. During a Peak Performance course at Niagara College, the metaphorical light bulb clicked on! Since 1988, she has devoted her life to personal and professional development. And she embodies her personal philosophy: Live life with no regrets.

Guided by her commitment to growth, Judy enjoyed a long career as a successful entrepreneur. In 2001, she joined a major corporation in Ontario, soon stepping into the role as corporate trainer.

Today, as a professional speaker, Judy is committed to helping people succeed through personal and professional growth. Using her proven processes and tools, Judy empowers audience members to create a vision of their ideal future.

Judy's enthusiastic style ignites the passion that lies within. She has the uncanny ability to deeply connect with audience members – and empower them to unleash their full potential.
